

Invitation and Entry Form
2018 FHYC Sunfish & Dinghy Series
Apr 8, 22 & 29   May 6 & 20   June 3
Sept 2, 9, 16, 23 & 30

Races will be held in Northwest Creek in the vicinity of the mouth of Spring Creek. Sunfish and other dinghies (tenders) will sail as classes if there are 3 or more boats per class. There also will be an open class competition for small boats which do not constitute a one design class.

Starting time for the first race each day will be 1400. Sailing instructions will be provided via email and are available on the FHYC website listed under tab "Racing".

Weather permitting; three races will be sailed each race day. High point scoring system will be used. The winner of a race will get 1 point for each boat competing, number 2 will get -1 for each boat competing, etc. All races will be scored. No scores will be excluded.

Races will be conducted under the 2017-2020 Racing Rules of Sailing except as modified by specific references in the sailing instructions.

In the event of inclement weather or less than 3 boats total competing races may be cancelled by email at or before 1200 on race day.

The 2018 Awards Party will be held at the end of the Fall series combined with the Ensign Fleet. Date and location to be announced.
